MILLEDGEVILLE, ILLINOIS.—I am again in Milledgeville among the loved ones here and once more among the "King's Children." They have grown stronger in work and in number. The first Sabbath evening that I was at home was children's day and of course all services were postponed for them. I enjoyed their entertainment very much. They did well. The last two Sabbath evenings I have enjoyed the services of the junior and senior "King's Children." It thrilled my heart with gladness to hear their young voices singing and praising God; thanking him for his goodness and mercy, and for his beloved Son; reading and studying his word. They were full of life and willing to work to have their meetings a success. When the juniors had finished, the meeting was turned over to the seniors. Although the last evening was very warm a large number of seniors were assembled as one family of God's children, filled with the love of the divine Father and Christ, our Saviour. President, leader and officers all present. Our subject, "Fellowship in Work" was well discussed. Good points were drawn out for us to remember and put into practice. May God help us to do so, and to love and obey him. He says: "If ye love me ye will keep my commandments." Let us bear in mind Matthew 28: 20, to observe all things whatsoever Christ hath taught and commanded. I would love to hear of more King's Children societies. I hear good news from the King's Children of Lanark, Illinois. I hope conference will decide on, and firmly establish one name for us. I am anxious for the one name to be "King's Children." How many are with me? Please think over it. We should have one name. May God help us to live and walk in the path of righteousness, is the prayer of your sister in Christ Jesus.—S. A. Gibbons. July 26.

BOOKS FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

No home is complete without Books, Tracts and Papers; but much—the greater part of what is published—is either worthless or positively harmful. We cannot rely upon advertisements, as a man, without a conscience can write as good words for what is either valueless or nefarious as for that which is worthy and elevating. In this department it is our aim to offer only such books, tracts and papers, as the editor can personally recommend. We expect to add to the list from time to time as we find books of special merit. We shall also esteem it a favor of our book lovers if they will report to us the title, author and publisher of books they think are entitled to a place in this column.

This is no doubt the best written book in the Dunkard fraternity, and is recognized and quoted as a standard work. Among the subjects treated are the following: "Time and Its Measurment; The Passover—Its Institution and Design—Changes the Law of Its Observance—Time for Killing and Eating—Did Christ Eat It?—Christ's Agony Apprehension and Trial; Crucifixion, Burial and Resurrection. The Lord's Supper—Its Abuses at Corinth—Meaning of Delpnon—Design of," etc.

LOUISIANA DAY
---AT THE--- World's Fair!

HON. MURPHY J. FOSTER, Governor of the State of Louisiana, and a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to know personally, has extended a most cordial invitation to the people of the North and Northwest, to join with the people of Louisiana in making August 10th, which has been designated and set apart as one that shall be memorable for social greetings between representatives of the State of Louisiana and the States of the North and Northwest. Many northern people are finding homes in the State of Louisiana, and many more are inquiring concerning the agricultural and industrial products of that State. The Louisiana Exhibit at the World's Fair affords an excellent opportunity to see what can be successfully manufactured and grown in that State, and AUGUST 10th, while the Governor and his Staff, accompanied by the Washington Artillery, and many of the leading citizens of the State are present, will be a most excellent time to visit the Louisiana Building. It is generally conceded that the ILLINOIS CENTRAL is the direct route to the World's Fair. See that your tickets are via this route. For a copy of Governor Foster's invitation, and for further information concerning Louisiana and Louisiana Day at the World's Fair, address the undersigned at Manchester, Iowa.
